10. Amendments:

This MOU shall not be amended except by way of a mutual understanding of both Parties in writing and expressly stating that it is an amendment to this MOU.

11. Confidentiality:

The Parties acknowledge and agree that all information provided by either Party or their affiliates, with respect to the business, affairs, courseware, Value Added Modules, contents and other material of such Party or its affiliates, to the other Party or its affiliates, directly or indirectly, and whether oral or written, shall be considered confidential information. Each Party agrees that, without the prior written consent of the other Party, neither it nor any of its affiliates shall: -

- a) Use any of such confidential information of the other Party for any purpose other than in connection with this MOU; or
- b) Disclose any portion of such confidential information of the other Party to any person other than to persons who need such information in connection with the MOU; provided however, the foregoing restrictions on the disclosure and use of confidential information shall not apply to the extent that;
 - I. Such confidential information is generally available to the public other than as a result of unauthorized disclosures;
 - II. Such confidential information was received by the recipient on a non confidential basis from a third party prior to the recipient's receipt of such confidential information from the other Party;
 - III. Such confidential information was released without restriction to a third party by the Party that has the right to such confidential information; or

IV. The disclosure of such confidential information is required by judicial or governmental order or regulation.

All confidential information and any other material (including without limitation Value Added Modules, documents, models, database, designs, content, pricing and lists) furnished by one Party to the other under this MOU, are and shall remain the property of the disclosing Party. Neither Party shall share this information to any Party outside this MOU without the explicit written approval from the disclosing Party.

Upon termination of the MOU by either Party, for any reason whatsoever, the Parties shall immediately cease the use of all information received from each other.

12. Dispute Resolution:

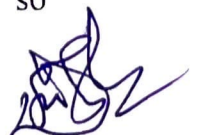

The Parties shall endeavor to settle by mutual conciliation any claim, dispute or controversy (dispute) arising out of or in relation to this MOU. That as per all such conciliation processes, the Parties shall meet each other, in order to settle disputes of any nature reaching a solution to the problem/disputes.

That any claim, dispute, deadlock or controversy which cannot be resolved through conciliation within 15 (fifteen) days or such extended period as the Parties may unanimously agree, may be referred to the arbitration of a single arbitrator agreed by mutual consent. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final & binding on both the Parties.

13. Force Majeure:

In the event that any of the Parties hereto finds itself unable, by reason of a case of "force majeure" to carry out its obligations hereunder in whole or in part, the obligations of such Party to the extent that they are affected by such "force majeure" shall be suspended as long as impossibility so caused lasts, but not thereafter. The situation created by such "force majeure" shall be remedied as far as possible by exercising reasonable efforts.

The term "force majeure" as used herein shall mean any act of God and any event, whether accidental or not, which is beyond the will and control of the Party affected by such event (but not necessarily unpredictable) such as war, whether declared or not, riot, insurrection, civil commotion, sabotage, strikes, lock out, or other disturbances, accident, fire, earthquake, flood explosion, damage, to plant or installations, epidemic, quarantine, restrictions, absence or the usual means of transport and embargoes.

The Party affected by "force majeure" shall give notice thereof to the other Party by letter or fax setting forth all necessary particulars concerning the giving of the said notice, the obligations of the Party giving such notice shall be suspended as specified above and the Parties shall consult together with the view to determining mutually acceptable measures to overcome the difficulties arising there from.

14. Governing Law and Jurisdiction:

This MOU shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of India and the Courts at Greater Noida shall have solo and exclusive jurisdiction on any disputes arising out of this MOU.

Sury Dink

15. Notices:

All notices, requests, consents, waivers or other communications required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed effective and properly served: (i) if delivered during regular business hours at the office of the Party (ies) herein set forth. Such communication shall be given by facsimile, commercial delivery service or sent by certified mail, postage prepaid and return receipt requested as under.
